

WANT DOGS KEPT OFF ALL STREETS

Dogs at large on the streets of Honolulu are a constant menace to the lives and limbs of motorists as well as pedestrians. It is expected that the petition which is being presented to the board of supervisors at its next meeting, will be signed by the signatures of more than 100 riders of motorcycles. The preamble of the petition which is designed to keep dogs from running at large on the streets, whether wearing license tags or not, calls attention to the fact that there are large numbers of dogs that are permitted to run at large and that they give chase to motorists, often running into machines and throwing riders off. No distinction is made between the dogs that attack or pursue motorcycles and those that do not, all being classed together in the comprehensive "many dogs" and "they" in the language of the petition.

NEXT EXAMINATION FOR OFFICERS TO BE JULY 23

Gen. F. S. Strong has been directed by the war department to designate the eligible enlisted and civilian candidates for the next competitive examination to be held beginning July 23 for the provisional appointment as second lieutenants to the regular army, according to an order received yesterday. The order directs that the preliminary examination be omitted in the case of enlisted men under special regulation number one. It says, however, that general history, arithmetic, algebra, plane geometry and plane trigonometry will be added to the examination for enlisted men but they can substitute drill regulations for either algebra, geometry or trigonometry.

PERSONALITIES

CAPT. AND MRS. JOHN R. MCGILL have moved from their old home at 814 Dewey street to a new residence at Dewey Court, Waikiki.

ADJUTANTS JAMES C. and MRS. WEST of the Salvation Army and their daughter, Miss Luella, have moved from their former residence on Likelike street to 1239 Beretania. Adjutant West said this morning he and his wife are delighted with Honolulu and that their work here is progressing very encouragingly.

POLICE COURT NOTES

Night gamblers in police court entered the exchequer by $40 in fines and bail forfeitures. Sixteen more taken Tuesday will be heard May 3.

Ita, a Japanese, and Ah Sui, a Chinese, each paid $25 in police court for having one chess ticket in possession. In such "ordinary" cases, as Capt. McDuffie calls them, Judge Moncary usually assesses the customary $25 but sometimes he emphasizes "reckless costs" and sometimes "And costs."

Joe Francis, an 18-year-old Portuguese escaped prisoner from the Oahu Jail, was caught Tuesday by Capt. McDuffie's men and arraigned in police court to get another six months' term attached to the year he received recently, only a few weeks of it having been served. He was given a year for robbery and two more are charged to him since he escaped six days ago.

Both for acreage and production sugar beats broke records in the United States this year, about 918,000 tons being grown on 280,000 acres of land.

MAKING IT PLAIN

The Pure Food and Drug Laws aim to protect the public by preventing misstatements on the labels of preparations but some people continue to suspect "extracts" of cod liver thinking they will get the benefits of an emulsion of cod liver oil.

The difference is very great. An "emulsion" contains real cod liver oil, which has had the hearty endorsement of the medical profession for many years, while an "extract" is a product which contains no oil and is highly alcoholic.

Scott's Emulsion guarantees the highest quality of cod liver oil and is thickly blended with glycerine and hypophosphites. Scott's is free from the false stimulation of alcohol and is endorsed by good physicians everywhere.

Ekekela Loto, a nine-year-old girl, was run down on King street near Gulick avenue last night by E. C. Anderson driving auto 2645 to town. As he approached a crowd of about a dozen women and children walking in the street Ekekela is said to have darted out in front of the machine.

JUNE DAY CHARMS IN 'HEADACHES'

A four-reel problem play of much strength is "Headaches," featuring June Day, the clever little emotional actress, and Daniel Carson Goodman.

This play comes to the Empire theater today. Much of the interest compelled by the pictures centers around the costars. Goodman displays a most remarkable ability for an emoting role in this work and is sure to win a host of new followers. He is a new and rising artist, who has been seen but a few times in this city.

June Day is surrounded by a very excellent cast of capable people, which assists greatly in the presentation of James Kaufman's great story dealing with life's joys and shadows. In the picture Miss Day is seen falling in love with an artist and marries him without knowledge that he has already contracted a previous obligation. The discovery of the man's duplicity brings out a train of interesting and novel situations.

"Art for Art's Sake" affords ample opportunity to Frank Garwood, a popular comedian to make the most of a rather fanciful plot. The fun is fast and furious, while Garwood and a well-balanced cast of performers occupy the front and center of the spotlight.

"The Girl from San Francisco," a serial filled with thrilling situations, will soon be introduced to patrons at the Empire.

BOY DAY TO BE BIG FEATURE IN CITY SATURDAY

Thousands of Japanese throughout the city will celebrate Boy Day on Saturday afternoon. This custom, which has been in effect for centuries, is followed out faithfully by the Japanese residents of the city.

The sign of the boy is the carp and large paper carps are displayed in many ways flying from house-tops and painted on banners placed in the front yards of the residents who have boys in their homes.

The carp has been selected to represent the strong boy as this fish is a sturdy swimmer up streams and is considered to have great strength. A few of the Japanese residents are already flying the large paper carps for Boy Day although the formalities will all take place on Saturday when visiting and boys' games are celebrated.

RED MEN AS HOSTS SHOW THEMSELVES TO BE "GOOD SCOUTS" ALSO

The Improved Order of Red Men, Hawaiian Tribe No. 1, showed their guests Tuesday night that the only "Good Indians" were by no means confined to the Northwest, by presenting a social entertainment to about 300 members and guests that did the order proud.

Preceding the musical features, C. A. Haneberg was featured with an interesting stereopticon lecture, entitled "Travels Through India and the Malay Islands." Dancing closed an unusually pleasant evening. The following program was carried out: Speech, Judge W. J. Robinson; piano solos, "Lorette" and "Indian Revel," Mrs. Gloria Lewis; song, "Lay My Head Beneath the Roses," Brother Leandro accompanied on the piano by Mrs. G. Lewis; vocal solos "Goodbye My Love, Goodbye," and "Don't Bite the Hand That's Feeding You," Joseph E. Aflague, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. G. Lewis; vocal solo, "When I Leave the World Behind," Miss Matilda V. Enos; guitar solo, M. M. Mindro; bugle calls, "Soldier in Uniform, Thanks," Judge Robinson.

COSTS YOU MONEY TO BE "PIEFACE": TEN CENTS NOW

If anyone should walk up behind you and call you a "pie face" next week, don't get excited and attempt to fight. Consider the remark as a compliment. They mean that your face is your fortune.

Beginning at 7 a. m. on next Monday morning at the Y. M. C. A. cafeteria, a slice of your favorite pie will cost you 10 cents, whereas now you may walk away with a section for a solitary dime. There is a sign posted in the association building notifying all gourmands that pie is a luxury, and the H. C. of L. has made its stand in the pie line. A "pie face" isn't the worst thing in the world after Monday. You don't have to wear diamonds, just spill a little custard pie over your coat, and you can get credit anywhere.

Of children taken care of, one was removed to the county hospital, another to the boys' detention home, and a third to Leahi Home.

GIRLS' CLUBS TO HOLD CONTESTS

The first exhibition of the clubs of the Young Women's Christian Association which will be held in the games hall of the Young Men's Christian Association tomorrow night at 8 o'clock will be the scene of a spirited contest between the clubs for eight points toward the pennant to be awarded the club with the best year's record for allround excellence. The points are to be awarded for gymnastic form, memory of drills, and proportional representation. Miss Leonora Andersen, Miss Dorothy Sherman and Glenn Jackson will act as judges.

The six competing clubs are the Jolly McKinleyites, the Hawaiian Girls' Club, the Lyrio Club, the Girl Guardian Society, the Tse Moi, and the Wakaba Kai. Each of these clubs has an individual drill, and all participate in a marching drill with which the program begins and a free hand drill with which it ends. The Maile Club from Kaimuki and the Kalia Club will also take part, but will not compete for honors.

The exhibition is interesting as showing one of the most powerful means of approach utilized by the Young Women's Christian Association in its appeal to a wide variety of girls.
